25X1A  25X1X1  25X1X1  25X1A  DATE OF CONTENT. 17 March 1953  25X1A DATE PREPARED 27 April 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  25X1A  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 at Wiener Neustadt (0 48/X 34) airfield included about 42 Mig-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monoblanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely no MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revenments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor wehicle repair shop and the garages	COUNTRY_	CLASSIFICATION Austr A pproved For Relea		RDP80-008-104001300470004-2	:
25X1A  25X1X1  25X1A DATE OF CONTENT. 17 Parch 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES  1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 4 MPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  25X1A  25X1A  25X1A  1. aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 at Winner Neuthart (O. 48/X 3/4) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s at Winner Neuthart (O. 48/X 3/4) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s and 16 Min-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s nade a 30-minute flight with an interval of three vingepans and a distance of three sircraf lengths. No AA gun emplacer ents but only excavation work was seen between the courch and the Woelleredorirestrases stop. All aircraft revertments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the core vehicle repair shop and the garanes at the castern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue ensulets was seen near the Artillerie Rasorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were marked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue ensulets. The Macinfolian Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who ware black-bordered blue ensulets. The Macinfolian Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who ware black-bordered blue ensulets. Sorn soldiers but to vericles were seen in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barboniered blue epsulots, were open in the billeting area to be a barb					Part contra
25X1A  DATE OF CONTENT. 17 March 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 4 TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Winner Neustadt (O 48/K 34) airfield included about 42 Mid-15a, 3 single-engine low-wing roncalment in the full stringers and a distance of three sirroral lengths. No AA gun emilacerents but only excavation work was seen between the course had the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hosses in the tailboard were seen near the votor vehicle repair shop and the garaness at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1A  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue equalists was seen near the Artillerie Rasorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were marked in the ballering reason at the castern edge of the installation which was occupied by solidiers who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue smallets. The Macintolan Mascarne was also guarded by a sentry who was a man in the billeting reason with buscluber bordered blue was one man the billeting reason with buscluber bordered blue was one was seen in the billeting reason with buscluber bordered blue was one was seen the billeting reason with buscluber bordered blue was one was seen in the billeting reason with buscluber bordered blue was one black-bordered blue was one black-bordered blue was one black-b	. I CAPTE O Separation	ren - ren - ren worden de specielle C. C.C. de les seus premiers (C.). Lette de L.C. de Marc Le retille 2 de nou de 1923-).	version de train en verse verse arrent schrift stellen vers sowe it invention set and e	25X1A	Vacation - Makina zone facili i i .
25X1A DATE PREPARED 27 April 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  25X1A  25X1A  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Wisner Neutradt (0 48/x 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-ring monoplance and 13 unidentified plance, as formatly not MiJ-15s or twin jet plance, at 9:15 a.m. two MiJ-15s and as 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No As gun cental or only excavation work was seen tetween the courch and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetents were unoccupied, Three small van-like trudes with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue challet was seen near the Artilleria Masorae. Fifteen notor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue spaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue spaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue spaulets. Sone soldiers but no velicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks brieferd blue spaulets, were observed on the Misner Noustadt-Bad Fischer highway.  25X1A  Cornent. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two Fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified plance, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly roved from Zwoelfaxing.		25X1X1			mag tag at ogsåssjerengen ogsåmmer.
REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at W. Inner Neustadt (0 48/X 3/4) airfield included about 42 Nic-15s; 3 single-engine low-wing noncolance and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not Nic-15s or twin jet planes, at 9:15 e.m., two MG-15s made a 30-nimute flight with an interval of three winespeans and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen the texteen the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revertents were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard wore seen near the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garaines at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue emailet was seen near the Artilleria Kasorno. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue emailets. Some soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue emailets. Some soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks are provided by two dripter regiments, it is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably 7e-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly roved from Zwoelfaxing.	DATE OF CO	NTENT 17 March 1953	reasympty with the translation of the state		or area development
REFERENCES  1ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1A  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Maner Neustadt (0 48/X 3/4) airfield included about 42 Mic-15s; 3 single-engine low-using monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely nd Mic-15s or twin jet planes, at 9:15 a.m., two Mic-15s made a 30-chimate flight with an interval of three winespeans and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacerents but only excavation work was seen tower the courch and the Weellersdorferstrasses stop. All aircraft revertents were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the notor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue consulet was seen hear the Artilleria Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue enaulets. Some soldiers but more blief-bordered blue enaulets. The Kachrichten Maserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue enaulets. Some soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks			25X1A DATE PRE	PARED 27 April 1953
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 NPF)  REMARKS  1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 at Wisner Neutrati (0 48/X 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing nononlance and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspans and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gum emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the cource and the Weellersdorferstwasse stop. All aircraft revetments were uncoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue consider was seen near the Artilleria Kaserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended fron the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue ensulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue espallets. The rechrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue espallets. For soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue espallets, were observed on the Elenct Noustedt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Congent. Wisner Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by to fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly reved from Zweelfaxdng.	REFERENCES	S	•		The state of the s
1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Winner Neustadt (0 48/X 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-using monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely nd Mi3-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspans and a distance of three sircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the courch and the Weellersdorferstrasses top. All aircraft revenues are unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen mear the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Masorne. Mifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vericles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Miener Moustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A	PAGES	1 ENCLOSURES (No. 4			to the same and the same
1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Wisner Neustadt (0 48/X 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-using mononlanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely nd MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the conurch and the Weellersdorferstrasse step. All aircraft revertments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen mear the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue emailets was seen near the Artillerie Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue emailets. Sore was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue emailets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were observed on the Miener Moustadt-Bad Fischer highway.  25X1A    Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	DEMARKS
1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 at Wiener Neustadt (0 48/% 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing roncollance and 13 unidentified planes, definitely no Mid-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two Mid-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No A8 gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the courch and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-life trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the rotor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue enaulets was seen near the Artillerie Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue snaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks trucks the property of the property of the Mid-18 pordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Miener Neustadt-Bad Fischeu highway.  25X1A  Congent. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zweslfaxing.	1/E-P-IP-II/13/1-3-mon			• •	or service about the con-
1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1952 at Wiener Neustadt (0 48/4 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monolance and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s not win jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s nade a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun enclacerents but only excavation work was seen tetween the courch and the Weellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-14ke trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X11  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Maserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue enaulets. The Nachrichten Maserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Some soldiers but movelicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks  25X1A  25X1A  25X1A  25X1A  26Cornent. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly good from Zwoelfaxing.	Objects 140 hole (SIRP) de la redice desiglace deservir Vision	in for A hymnigh A him and the series of the series and A houring to Salahard A. Stores the series and A. (1244 a de	saadheadh aghdheartas a' bhoistan ior y dh'iad mainn adorsann a' cong a' Britistiús n'i	(OR 10-14) - Afficiation (Control Microsoft Control And Annies (Annies Annies Annies Annies Annies Annies Annie	v vivi - alta v 99€ 1901
1. Aircraft observed by source between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 at Wiener Neustadt (0 48/X 34) airfield included about 42 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing mononlanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely nd MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspans and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen ment the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue enaulets was seen near the Artillerie Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue enaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Some soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 19 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		ini Biblionida di vidida. Non mato, vice midris graenteena, negaligeza graenena moto e saggido e nor	generalizer (2001) - i i releber (2008) (1008) (1009) (2008) (2008) (2008)	Audiciae a companie e a maio a companie de companie de maio de companie de companie de companie de companie de	a (V) , will pay or gazer pages — )
at Whener Newstadt (0 A8/X 34) airfield included about A2 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No A3 gun emplacerants but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Maserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Newfrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Whener Newstadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A    Corment. Wiener Newstadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	2	5X1A	$1,000 million of april models out without on commencement.	one moneto por mante tima, material di dimendinata indonessa di estima il estima di estima di estima di estima	VI. P. S. VANCONE S. at Whener Newstadt (0 A8/X 34) airfield included about A2 MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No A3 gun emplacerants but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Maserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Newfrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Whener Newstadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A    Corment. Wiener Newstadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.
at Whener Newstadt (O AB/X 34) airfield included about AZ MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No A3 gun emplacerents but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Newfichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Whener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		4 at Wiener Newsdath (O AB/X 3A) airfield included about AZ MiG-15s, 3 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely not MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspens and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacerents but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the notor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nathrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Some soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The intrinder according school trucks but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischeu highway.  25X1A  Comment. Miener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.
3 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 13 unidentified planes, definitely nd MiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspans and a distance of three sincraft lengths. No AA gun emplacerents but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrases etop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  25X1  2. A guard who wore black-bordered blue enaulets was seen near the Artillerie Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who wore black-bordered blue enaulets. The Nachrichten Maserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks are paulets, were observed on the Miener Neustadt-Bad Fischeu highway.  25X1A    Corment.   Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit reviously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	1.	Aircraft observed by sour	ce between 9 a.m.	and 2 p.m. on 17 March 1953 nd NiG-15s or twin jet planes. At 9:15 a.m., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute flight with an interval of three wingspans and a distance of three aircraft lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Weellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft reverments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  2. A guard who wore black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Masorne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered be epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.
lengths. No AA gun emplacements but only excavation work was seen between the church and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop. All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Kaserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks  25X1A  25X1A  Correct. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		nd MiG-15s or twin jet pl	anes. At 9:15 a.m	., two MiG-15s made a 30-minute the courch and the Woellersdorferstrasse stop, All aircraft revetments were unoccupied. Three small van-like trucks with instrument boards and hoses in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  2. A guard who wore black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Kaserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks arise of the billeting area. Driving school trucks arise observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.
in the tailboard were seen near the motor vehicle repair shop and the garages at the eastern edge of the installation.  2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Kaserne, Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A    Comment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		the church and the Woelle	rsdorferstrasse s	top. All aircraft revetments were
2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artillerie Kaserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vericles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A    Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		in the tailboard were see	n near the motor		es
2. A guard who were black-bordered blue epaulets was seen near the Artilleria Kaserne. Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard. Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A Comment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.	_	at the eastern edge of th	e installation.		25>
Kaserne, Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks    drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.    Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	25/1				*
Kaserne, Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue enaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue enaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks    drivers with black-bordered blue enaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.    Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.
Kaserne, Fifteen motor vehicles were parked in the barracks yard, Numerous telephone lines extended from the installation which was occupied by soldiers who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. Sone soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks    drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.    Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	2	A ground who same black-ho	Tare out bares	etc ups coan near the Antil'aria soldiers who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. The Nachrichten Kaserne was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Sore soldiers but no vehicles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks  25X1A  25X1A  Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.		Kaserne, Fifteen motor ve	hicles were parke	ed in the barracks yard. Numerous was also guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered blue epaulets. Some soldiers but no vericles were seen in the billeting area. Driving school trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Miener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Comment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Fe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.
25X1A trucks drivers with black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		was also guarded by a sen	try who wore blac	k-bordered blue epaulets. Some bordered blue epaulets, were observed on the Wiener Neustadt-Bad Fischau highway.  25X1A  Comment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regirents. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.	25X1A		were seen in the 25X1A Corment. Wiener Neustadt airfield is believed to be still occupied by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly noved from Zwoelfaxing.		bordered blue epaulets, we	re observed on th
by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.		highway.
by two fighter regiments. It is not clear whether the 13 unidentified planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.	25У1Л Г	Comment Manage No.	and and and and and a	- halfamad da ha addil anamadad
planes, probably Pe-2s, belonged to the unit previously stationed in Aspern or the unit which allegedly moved from Zwoelfaxing.	25X IA _
CLASSIFICATION SECRET		webern or one mire witch	arredenth moved I	TOW DWOSTIGATING.
CLASSIFICATION SECRET
CLASSIFICATION SECRET
CLASSIFICATION SECRET		÷
CLASSIFICATION SECRET
CLASSI ICATIO		OI ACCIEINATION	SECRET
	nage - pro tree made the movement administration and accommod	WINITEDATION OF THE PROPERTY O	AND THE PROPERTY OF THE STATE O		